“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the [Holy] Spirit who is from God, so that we may know and understand the [wonderful] things freely given to us by God. We also speak of these things, not in words taught or supplied by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, combining and interpreting spiritual thoughts with spiritual words [for those being guided by the Holy Spirit].” 1 Cor. 2:12-13 AMP

Cathrine’s comments from meditating on the Wm. Seymour document given as assignment, will hopefully inspire you to the greater works we are blessed to do.

Cathrine wrote...

The story of this man is very relevant to the book of Acts. In Acts 17: 26 -27 am reminded that from one man God made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth, and He determined the time set for them and the exact places they should live. He did this that we may seek and reach Him and find Him though He is not far from each of us.

In line with the the story of Seymour, it’s very clear i should know what God has called me to do. With this understanding i should know great things can happen through me even outside church building.

It’s then very clearly confirmed i cannot be Holy Spirit baptized and remain the same.

As a Spirit filled person i can cause revival to happen causing increase to the fellowship of those that are receiving Christ. True revival is marked by people receiving Jesus and i can be part of this.

I should not be limited by situations, my physical inabilities or be intimidated by a humble beginning.

Getting started is key for progress in what am called to do more so being driven by Christ’s love.

As a born again believer i should be strong inside out. Seymour faced racial segregation and reading this it came to my wake up call i should not be dictated by people who i am.

Being in Christ should be a way of turning many to him.

Am encouraged by Acts 10:34 - 35 that i have perceived God is not a respecter of persons. But in every nation he that fears him, and works righteousness, is accepted by him.

As a Spirit filled believer gender should not limit me from serving my God.

It’s possible to be criticized and mocked by non believers around me when operating under Holy Spirit’s influence. This happened to Seymour. Also to disciples at the day of Pentecost but this ended in glorifying God as more joined Christianity Acts 2:1 - 18.

Holy Spirit baptism is not just meant for me to babble in tongues but for demonstrations of power. Miracles signs and wonders should be part of my ministry as well as winning people to Christ Mk 16: 17-18.

Being Spirit filled enables me to walk the talk of Jesus. By so doing i will always be a custodian of sharing Christ love characterized by his death, burial and resurrection for forgiveness of sin.
